

Get some RHYTHM in your BLUES & some ROCK in your ROLL

BIG BOY BLOATER

Big Boy Bloater – Press Biography

Big Boy Bloater is a cornerstone of modern blues and roots music, celebrated for his deep, gravelly voice, impeccable guitar work, and captivating storytelling. A prolific performer and songwriter, Bloater has built a loyal following with his unique fusion of rhythm and blues, rock 'n' roll, and contemporary grit.

Hailing from Farnham, Surrey, but now residing in South West France, Bloater has been a prominent figure in the blues scene for decades, earning praise for his high-energy live shows and charismatic stage presence. He has toured extensively, gracing venues and festivals across the UK, Europe, and beyond. Known for his ability to connect with audiences of all sizes, Bloater's live performances are a masterclass in raw energy and musicianship.

Bloater's music has enjoyed widespread acclaim, with albums such as Luxury Hobo and Pills receiving rave reviews for their mix of darkly humorous lyrics, infectious grooves, and modern takes on classic blues traditions. His songwriting showcases a storyteller's eye, with tracks like "I Love You (But I Can't Stand Your Friends)" and "The Saturday Night Desperation Shuffle" offering both wit and soul.

A frequent presence on Radio, Bloater has garnered support from the likes of Jools Holland, Craig Charles, and Paul Jones. His music has been featured on prominent shows, and he's been invited for live sessions and interviews that highlight his unique sound and personality.

In addition to his musical achievements, Big Boy Bloater has become an advocate for mental health awareness, openly discussing his personal struggles and resilience. His candidness has resonated with fans and further cemented his status as a relatable and inspiring figure in the music world.

Whether playing intimate venues or headlining renowned blues festivals, Big Boy Bloater continues to electrify audiences with his unmistakable sound and authentic artistry. With his boundless talent and genuine charm, he remains a vital force in modern blues and roots music.

"One of the great blues men of our time" Jools Holland, BBC

"Bloater is a phenomenal guitarist!" Mark Lamarr, BBC Radio 2

"I love this guy...he has a voice that sounds like it's been soaked in turpentine for the last decade!" Craig Charles, BBC 6 Music

"I'm a massive fan of Big Boy Bloater, he's a charismatic boy with a big voice" Imelda May

"The best R&B guitarist and singer in the UK" The Blues Magazine

CONTACT: office@bigboybloater.com

www.bigboybloater.com